BUILDING ICONIC ENVIRONMENTS

Introducing Aaron James Draplin

A man from the Midwest, Aaron Draplin started his associate degree at Northwestern Michigan College. At 19 he moved to Bend, Oregon to pursue his career in graphic design. In April 2000, he accepted an art director position at SNOWBOARDER magazine. In 2002, he became a senior designer at Cinco Design Office of Portland. His clients have included Nike, Burton Snowboards, Esquire, Red Wing, Ford Motor Company and the Obama Administration.

Draplin has been featured on TED Talks and has spoke at Google. In 2019 he designed the Star Ribbon, a US postal stamp. Aaron is the co-founder and designer for the well-known Field Notes brand. In 2004, Aaron started his own firm, the Draplin Design Company, and has solidified himself as one of the greatest in the graphic design world.

WARRANTY

SIXINCH warrants that upholstery applications shall be free from defects in materials and workmanship for a period of five (5) years from the date of purchase. Softening of foam will occur through normal use and is not a manufacturing defect. SIXINCH guarantees upholstered products only to be free from defects and that the upholstery is tailored according to product specifications. SIXINCH offers no warranty, either implied or expressed, on any fabrics or leathers. Visit sixinchusa.com/warranty for complete details on service and warranty terms and conditions.

Our furniture makes a bold statement that draws us all together.

OUR DNA

We build iconic environments that are distinctly original. Our team of designers and engineers are detailed to a fault. We have the ability to not only "dream" but also "do". Every piece that bears the SIXINCH label is held to the highest standards in the furniture industry.
